

Partnering In Your Care

Community members are invited and encouraged to attend our upcoming Partnering In Your Care event, which will be the first in this new health education series.

St. Lawrence Region Director of Quality and Regulatory Affairs Jackie Scanlon will be leading this FREE community event, and sharing health topics that will be covered in future sessions, such as advanced directives, fall prevention, infection prevention, medication safety, nutrition, stroke, (new) technology, wound care, and more.
